Advices from Honolulu, under date cf May 30, state that Paramount Bount has forwarded his resignation to Washington. Having hauled down the Stars and Stripes and created general disorder in the islands he evidently thinks that he has done all in his power to prevent annexation, and now desires to be relieved.

Mr. Thurston, the new Minister of the Provisional Government, has arrived in Washington and presented his credential to the Secretary of State. He does no take the same view of the Hawaiiar Islands as is entertained by those who are opposed to annexation. Nor does he think that there is any danger of an outbreak or that the Provisional Government is likely to be everthrown by the supporters of the deposed Queen.

Speaking to a friend upon this subject the new Minister said: "The Provisions Government is in position to sustain itself against any intrigues which may be entered late by by its opponents on the islands. The opposition is not even united. The enemies of the Government are divided between the supporters of the Queen and Princess. Many who are not in favor of the Government consider the Queen a bad woman and do not favor restoration. They desire the return to power of the old dynasty in the person of the Princess. It is not probable that they would make any effort to put the Queen back upon the

"Those who suggest the overthrow of the Provisional Government by violence do not understand the altuation in the islands. The regular army there, it is true, consists of only 100 men, but that is a comparatively large company for so small a country. It is competent, well-disclplined and faithful. It has for its support 100 volunteer allies who comprise the intelligent, able, energetic young men of Honolulu. They are the intellectual and physical pick of the city and country. They are well armed, well drilled and Old Structure (nown to Have Been Unsafe for Years.

Government Held Morally Responsible for Calamity.

Washington, June 9. Ford's old theatre, in which Abraham Lincoln was assassinated, used by the government for many years as a part of the office of the surgeon-general of the army, collapsed this morning, shortly after 9.30, with a terrible result in less of life and injury. The building stood on Tenth street, northwest, between E and F streets, not far from Peunsylvania Ayenne. It was condemned Pennsylvania Ayenue. It was condemned years ago, and had been repaired, propped up and renovated from year to year. Four hundred and seventy-five persons, mostly government clerks, were employed in the building, and nearly all were at work when it fell.

The excavation for an electric light plant was being made in the cellar of the structure, which was a three story affair. According to the best information obtainable, the workmen this morning had dug beneath the foundation supports in the iront of the building, weakening them to such an extent that the walls gave way before they could be jacked. This explanation is the only one advanced and scenus somewhat strange in view of the fact that the the fact that the

Those on the top floor were suddenly precipitated to the floor below, and the weight of the falling timbers and furniture carried the second and first floors with it. Fortunately only the forward half of the floors gave way. The outer ends of the floors and the rear part of the structure remained intact. The walls did not fall.

The news spread with lighting like rapidity, and soon Tenth street and the rapidity, and soon Tenth street and the people. A general line alarm was turned in a few minutes after the crash and all the ambulances in the city were summoned. As quickly as possible the police and firemen formed a reserve brigade, and ready hunds assisted them to take out the killed and wounded. In less than an hour 25 people were taken out and every few minutes some still form would be borned. 25 people were taken out and every few minutes some still form would be borned on a stretcher from the building.

Police and Army Ambulances, carbs, carriages and vehicles of every description were pressed into service for carrying away the dead and injured. All the hospitals in the city were utilized in caring for the injured; scores of physicians volunteered their services for this work. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia took possession of the building and vicinity in person and helped to direct the police and rescuers. Owing to the excellent police regulations there was no hindrance to the work by the anxious crowds and it was not long before the debris was cleared away to such an extent that the work of rescue could be carried on readily.

None of Those Who Escaped injury could tell which of the floors first gave way. dug to give more room and afford means of ventilation and in order that this could be accomplished there was a brick wall running from the back of the building to the middle of the lower floop. A number of workmen were excevating under this wall preparing to support it by underpining. It seems evident to this gentleman as they undermined the brick wall the first floor gave way and the floor, being supported by columns which rested on the first floor, collapsed las, and third floor collapsed in a like manner.

The fact that the collapse occurred through the girders being pulled out of place in the front wall towards the center, is established. It is learned there was no storage on the floors and the only weight was the desks and clerks emissing the winess gave a most elluborate description of the dress the prisoner work in the barn and had the ability to the first floor in girders and iron typights. It was no storage on the floors sand the only weight was the desks and clerks emissing apart of the iron work in the center. The foot possened the girders. This caused a philing apart of the iron work in the center of the winess about it on cross the time of the prontion.

And the Crash Fellewed.

The fact that the collapse occurred through the girders being pulled out of place in the front will towards the center, is established. It is learned there was no storage on the floors and the only weight was the deaks and clerks employed. Each floor was supported by iron girders and iron tyrights. It was the general opinion that the front [wall must have settled or spring safficiently to have loosened the girders. This caused a philing apart of the iron work in the center.

And the Crash Fellowed.

Win. F. Funk, contractor and builder, says he thinks the wreck was caused by the faulty manner in which the work of under-pinning was conducted. George W. Dant, the contractor who has supervision of the work, stated to-night that the work was heing properly done and bow the calamity occurred he was unable to tell.

The collapse of this building has directed attention to two other great public buildings believed to be in an almost equally unsafe condition. One is the government printing office, where 1,900 people are employed, and the other is the rickety shell known as the Windor building belonging to the War Department and occupied by hundreds of clerks.

A meeting of citizens was held this afternoon to put into operation measures for the relief of victims. It is stated that the families of those killed are left practically upprovided for. Rev. Dr. Bartlett

The witness testified Gov. Robinson for the defense, was resumed this morning, and lasted about an hour and a half. The witness testified that in the box in the cellar room, where the bandleless hatchet of which the government is making so much was found, two other hatchets were found. There was a pile of ashes in the same room. Considerable time was spent in showing that a search which the officer made of the Borden house on the day of the morder, was not very thorough. with Catarrh, finally and completely, —or you have $500 in cast.

That's what is promised you, no matter how bad your case or of how long standing, by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Catarrh can be cured. Not with the poisonous, irritating snuffs and strong, caustic solutions, that simply palliate for a time, or perhaps, driv the discuse to the lungs - but with Dr. Sage's Remedy.

The worst cases yield to its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties. "Cold in the Head," needs but a few applications. Catarrhal Headache, and all the effects of Catarri in the Head—such as offensive, breath, loss or impairment of the senses of taste, smell and hearing, watering or weak eyes - are at once relieved and cured. In thousands of cases, where everything else has failed, Dr. Sage's Remedy has produced penfect and permanent cures. That gives its proprietors faith to make the offer. It's $500, or a cure. They mean It's $500, or a cure. They mean to pay you, if they can't cure you. But they mean to cure you, and
